- 3rd grade HAS to stay within ratio (RBG3), all other grades are recommended ratios
- Looking at projections, even including self-contained, but low excluding self-contained
- What about money?
 - We don't know who qualifies for ELL and At-Risk, so we may get more or less money
 - Count day tells us who our kids are. THEN after that, the district calculates which kids are ELL and At-Risk. THEN, we get our true budget
- Approx. 10 teachers are receiving a raise from CUs, so those raises need to be accounted for when we get the actual budget
 - Need to be revisited by SOT when we get the budget (approx. beginning Oct)
- Probably not getting $5000 vacancy bonus, but sped will get $5000
